Local Architectural Firm Launches Website

ALTOONA, PA --- Judy Coutts, AIA, Architect, is pleased to announce the launch of her new website at www.judycoutts.com.

Central to the website is a portfolio of Ms. Coutts' work, including commercial, institutional, historic preservation, and residential projects. The site provides information about the type of services the firm offers, and a description of the design process.

Judy Coutts, AIA, was formed in 1995 to serve clients who need help solving problems related to the built environment, and managing the design and construction process. Ms. Coutts has 31 years of experience on architectural projects of varying sizes, from houses to hospitals, from a nuclear and chemical waste handling facility for the National Institutes of Health to satellite earth stations for NORAD. Hers is the first woman-owned architectural firm in Blair County, and is certified as a Woman Business Enterprise by the Pennsylvania Department of General Services.

Her site was designed and developed by Audra Jon Hoover Creative Services (www.ajhoover.com) and is hosted by Hostgator, one of Eco Host Reviews' "Top 10 Green Web Hosts," powered by 130% wind energy.
